

The Prohibition Mass Convention.

The prohibition mass convention of this county took place at advertised, at the court house in this village on Saturday last. It was not very massive, however, there being present by actual count when the convention opened, 79 persons, including the members of the convention, both ladies and gentlemen, children, spectators and reporters. It was held in the hall between the hours of 12:30 and 1:30, to which, however, some attributed the slim attendance. A little rain ought not to be an objection to a cold-water convention.

The convention was called to order by T. R. Harrison of Paw Paw, who made a little speech, concluding by nominating T. A. Granger of Paw Paw, as chairman. The chairman called on Rev. Fish of Paw Paw, who opened the meeting with prayer. Mr. A. Myers of Gobleville, was chosen secretary.

On motion of Dr. Harrison, a committee of seven was appointed to present the names of candidates for county officers. The chair appointed as such committee Messrs. Watkins of Lawton, Senator of South Haven, Anderson of Deatrin, Jacobs of Lawrence, Eaton of Bloomingdale, and Longor of Porter.

Dr. Harrison moved the appointment of a committee of five on resolutions, which motion prevailed. The chair thought the committee too large, and appointed a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Harrison of Paw Paw, Jennings of Lawrence, and Burroughs of Paw Paw.

While the committee were preparing a ticket the time was occupied with speech-making.

The committee on ticket reported the following candidates:

Representative 21st district, A. E. Jennings; representative 22nd district, Ingram E. Eaton; judge of probate, Wm. Anderson; sheriff, A. E. Haven; treasurer, J. W. Free; clerk, E. E. Pratt; register, Jas. Bale; surveyor, Peter Speicher; coroners, Wesley Longor and J. J. Mouthport.

No nominations were made for prosecuting attorney or circuit court commissioners. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Bale each tried to decline but the convention would not have it, and the ticket reported was adopted.

A list of resolutions was adopted, for which we have no space.

Elder Watkins of Lawton, adopted the usual tactics of Methodist ministers to raise money, and succeeded quite well. Two vacancies occurred in the ranks of the county committee, viz: D. W. Abrams who is about to leave the county, and J. C. Gould who, we understand, declines to act with the party and will vote the republican ticket. Messrs. Watkins of Lawton, and Eaton of Bloomingdale, were appointed to fill the vacancies.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Once a year, the locomotive engineers of the county meet together in convention to discuss matters relative to their calling. This year they met in San Francisco, and being a body of men who, when on a vacation, wish to make the most of it in the way of recreation and comfort, they naturally choose the route to their meeting place, which guarantees them the greatest immunity from danger and the most facilities for sight-seeing and enjoyment en voyage.

They have an open credit with the railroads, for all lines transport them free of charge, hence their choice is a voluntary act upon their part. This year, the great bulk of the fraternity chose the Great Rock Island Route, and were carried toward the Occident in half a dozen of the magnificent new Pullman cars, for which this great route is noted. They chose wisely and well, since they passed over a road with the smoothest of track, through a country of surprising fertility and loveliness, and while journeying ate the best viands the market afforded, cooked and served in the very best manner, and at night slept in the most luxurious sleeping cars to be found in the United States.

A true engineer is observant and quick to discern danger. There is nothing heedless or reckless in the composition of the Knights of the Foot-board, hence their choice of the Rock Island route was a compliment and a testimonial from men best qualified to judge, that they believed that the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway combines in its road, land, equipment and management, all the qualities that make a railway worthy the patronage of the public.

"Choral Worship." A collection of new sacred and secular music, for choirs, singing classes and conventions, by L. O. Emerson, published by Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston. "Choral Worship" is a full size church music book, apparently of the well known kind that has been in use so long, but with all the modern improvements. There are less tunes and more anthems; less dry exercises for the singing class part, and more graded songs, duets, trios and four-part songs or glees; less theory and a greatly increased quantity of good music for practice and enjoyment. It is a "dollar" book, contains 320 pages, of which 100 are devoted to the elements, 75 to tunes, 110 to anthems, and the rest to pleasing concert music. The name of the author is sufficient guarantee for the elegance and perfect smoothness of the music.

"Song Worship," for Sunday schools, by L. O. Emerson and W. F. Sherwin; published by Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston. Price, 35 cents. Mr. Sherwin, who has had charge of the music at Chautauqua, and other prominent assemblages of religious and educational people, is in just the position to feel the pulse of the Sunday-school school. If he says a higher style of Sunday-school music is needed, it is very likely to be so. Of Mr. Emerson's fine taste and ability there can be no question.

Must Have Some More.

There is no indecision about the action of Athlophoros in Rheumatism and Neuralgia. It is direct, speedy, efficacious, safe. Patients are encouraged from the beginning of treatment. Rev. Samuel Porter, Crete, Will Co., Ill., writes to say: "A few weeks ago, and before Mrs. Porter commenced to take Athlophoros, she could not walk a foot. This morning she walked four rods without help. It is a most valuable medicine and we must have some more of it."
